

Theatrical and Media Make-up Level 3

Course Type: Level 3 Technical Diploma

Exam Board: VTCT

Course Entry Requirements: English and Maths at a minimum Grade 3 in addition to 3 further GCSEs or equivalent at grades 9-3.

Why Study beauty therapy?

This course provides learners with the knowledge and skills that will prepare you for either employment or higher education. Students will gain both practical and theoretical knowledge which will promote opportunities for careers in make-up artist industry. Following this course will enable you to explore your creative ability using media make-up and improve your communication, teamwork and customer service skills.

Course entry requirements:

Learners will need to be committed and have the motivation to work theater hours to meet the different assessment requirements.

What Will I Study? Course Content

This qualification will give you the required theoretical and practical knowledge in Theatre and media make-up.

Level 3

- Photographic make-up
- Anatomy and Physiology
- Airbrush make-up
- Cosmetic make-up
- Media Make-up
- Style and fit postiche
- Cosmetic camouflage
- False eyelash application
- Health and Safety

How will I be assessed?

Assessment will take place through consultation when you and your assessor agree that you have reached the competence to successfully achieve assessment.

Assessment is ongoing through the course to produce a service portfolio, each unit will have a graded practical assessment and a graded synoptic assessment. .

The theory aspect of the course is external examinations, assignments and professional discussion.

Future Opportunities

After completion of the course you can work in the industry as a professional make-up artist in settings working with performers for theater, film, print media and photographic studios. Alternatively you can progress onto a degree at university. Theatrical and Media make-up is an excellent choice to study alongside

Beauty therapy and Hairdressing however, you could choose other subjects which would also complement this programme of study.